Victor Boutros

to speak at annual Amarillo Prayer Breakfast Nov. 21

What: Amarillo Community Prayer Breakfast

When: Always the Tuesday before Thanksgiving
Tuesday, November 21, 2023 beginning at 6:30 a.m.

Where: Amarillo Civic Center

Why: Can you think of a time when we need prayer more than today?

Once again, on November 21st, the Tuesday before Thanksgiving, the people of the Panhandle will join together in prayer for the time at the Amarillo Community Prayer Breakfast, giving thanks to God for the blessings He has bestowed on our community and asking for His continued guidance for our city, state and national leaders. This year Victor Boutros will be our featured speaker.

Victor is the CEO and co-founder of the Human Trafficking Institute and Dallas native, he previously served as a federal prosecutor on human trafficking cases on behalf of the US Department of Justice's Human Trafficking Prosecution Unit. He speaks to the media, corporate leaders, universities, and think tanks on human trafficking, and has provided briefings to senior government leaders on human trafficking, including legislators, congressional committees, and the President of the United States. We hope you will join us at 6:30 a.m. Tuesday, Nov. 21st at the Amarillo Civic Center North Exhibit Hall to hear Victor's powerful message, but more importantly, to pray and acknowledge our community's dependence on God. Tables of eight are available for $200 and will be assigned in the order received. Seating is determined on a first come basis, so please don't delay. Visit our website at www.amaprayerbreakfast.org for tickets.

Please prayerfully consider your support of the Amarillo Community Prayer Breakfast. We hope you will join us as we celebrate the start of Thanksgiving week.

Prayerfully,

Mary Bralley
